

MIRIAM A. FERGUSON
GOVERNOR

J. H. DAVIS, JR.
SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNOR

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
AUSTIN, TEXAS

October 25, 1933

REPRODUCED FROM THE HOLDINGS OF THE
TEXAS STATE ARCHIVES

Honorable W. W. Heath,
Secretary of State,
Austin, Texas.

Dear Sir:

I herewith transmit to you Senate Bill No. 78 passed at the recent called session of the Forty-third Legislature which I have this day disapproved and vetoed.

My reason for such action is that I have been advised by officials of the Federal Government that said bill would prevent the granting of appropriations and allocations of funds to the State of Texas under the National Recovery Act passed by the recent Congress amounting probably to many millions of dollars.

Said bill also undertakes to validate bonds and warrants issued by counties and cities in the sum of many million dollars that have not been submitted to the people and that have been otherwise illegally issued. Many members of the Senate and House who voted for this bill now petition me to veto and disapprove the bill because they voted for same under a misapprehension of the facts.

Done at Austin, this the twenty-fifth day of October,

1933.

Miriam A. Ferguson
Governor of Texas.
